4-H hippology contest this year," Skurupey adds. "The hospitality they showed us was priceless."

Skurupey also praised the youth and coaches for their efforts.

"The 4-H'ers' hard work and dedication in preparing for these contests are immeasurable," she notes. "The life and career skills gained from these contests far surpass the incredible equine knowledge gained.

"A special thank you also goes to the coaches for their understanding characters, recruitment in volunteers and positive attitudes that helped drive the success of each contest this year," she says. "Your positivity truly shined through to your teams, which was exciting to see within each contest."
