Summer Orientation Program for the visually impaired

This is an offer for ALL-visual impaired students who are currently attending school in the state of Idaho.

At NO COST to you, the student or the family, Orientation and Blind will be hosting the Summer Orientation Program.

This program is designed to help you regain your independence again by teaching skills inside and outside the home.

The 4-week program will cover travel skills, computer mouse navigation, writing alternatives, and so much more. Not only these classes,

Yukon Adventure at the Orpheum

The Call of the Wild vividly brings to the screen the story of Buck, a big-hearted dog whose blissful dogoosed life is turned upside down when he is suddenly and unceremoniously shipped from California home and transplanted to the exotic wilds of the Alaskan Yukon during the Gold Rush of the 1900s. As the newest rookie on a mail delivery-delivery-and-delivery team, the students pay nothing for food, shelter, and travel. If you or your someone know of someone who lacks the confidence or the means to go to your next destination, please contact Jocelynn Delfino at (605) 442-9441 or mbu@ptelip.org yahoo.com

First Place Fiddler

Music filled the air over President’s weekend at the Old Depot Theatre in Dillon. The 77th annual Dillon Junior Fiddler’s Contest drew entries from all over Montana, Idaho, and Washington for a chance to compete with their fiddle mates, and tunes of choice. Cathi Norris took home the list of trophies and prize money for the Junior Division.

Meadowlark School 278-5620

Questions? Call Meadowlark School 278-5620

To register online go to the FWP web-site, https://fpw.gov, or follow the links to Education and Bowhunter Education. Then go to May 4 and select a class-room.

Every student must pick up and read the bowhunter education manual before the first class.

All first time bowhunters, regardless of age must complete a bowhunter education course. State law says anyone buying an archery license must show either a previous year’s archery license or a certificate of completion from a bowhunter education course.

For more information on this or any other course in north central Montana contact the FWP office in Great Falls, 454-8441.
